

FIS: Focus Skiing

1. Brief History of Skiing and the International Ski Federation (FIS)
2. Global View of Skiing in the world and Future Developement
3. Introduction to the FIS Aid & Promotion Program

FIS: Focus Skiing

Universality of Winter Sports

FIS: Focus Skiing

alpine skiing (downhill, giant slalom, slalom, combination)

jumping/Skiflying

cross country/nordic combined

Freestyle (jumping, moguls, boarder-cross)

snowboard (halfpipe, alpine)

telemark

speed skiing

grass skiing

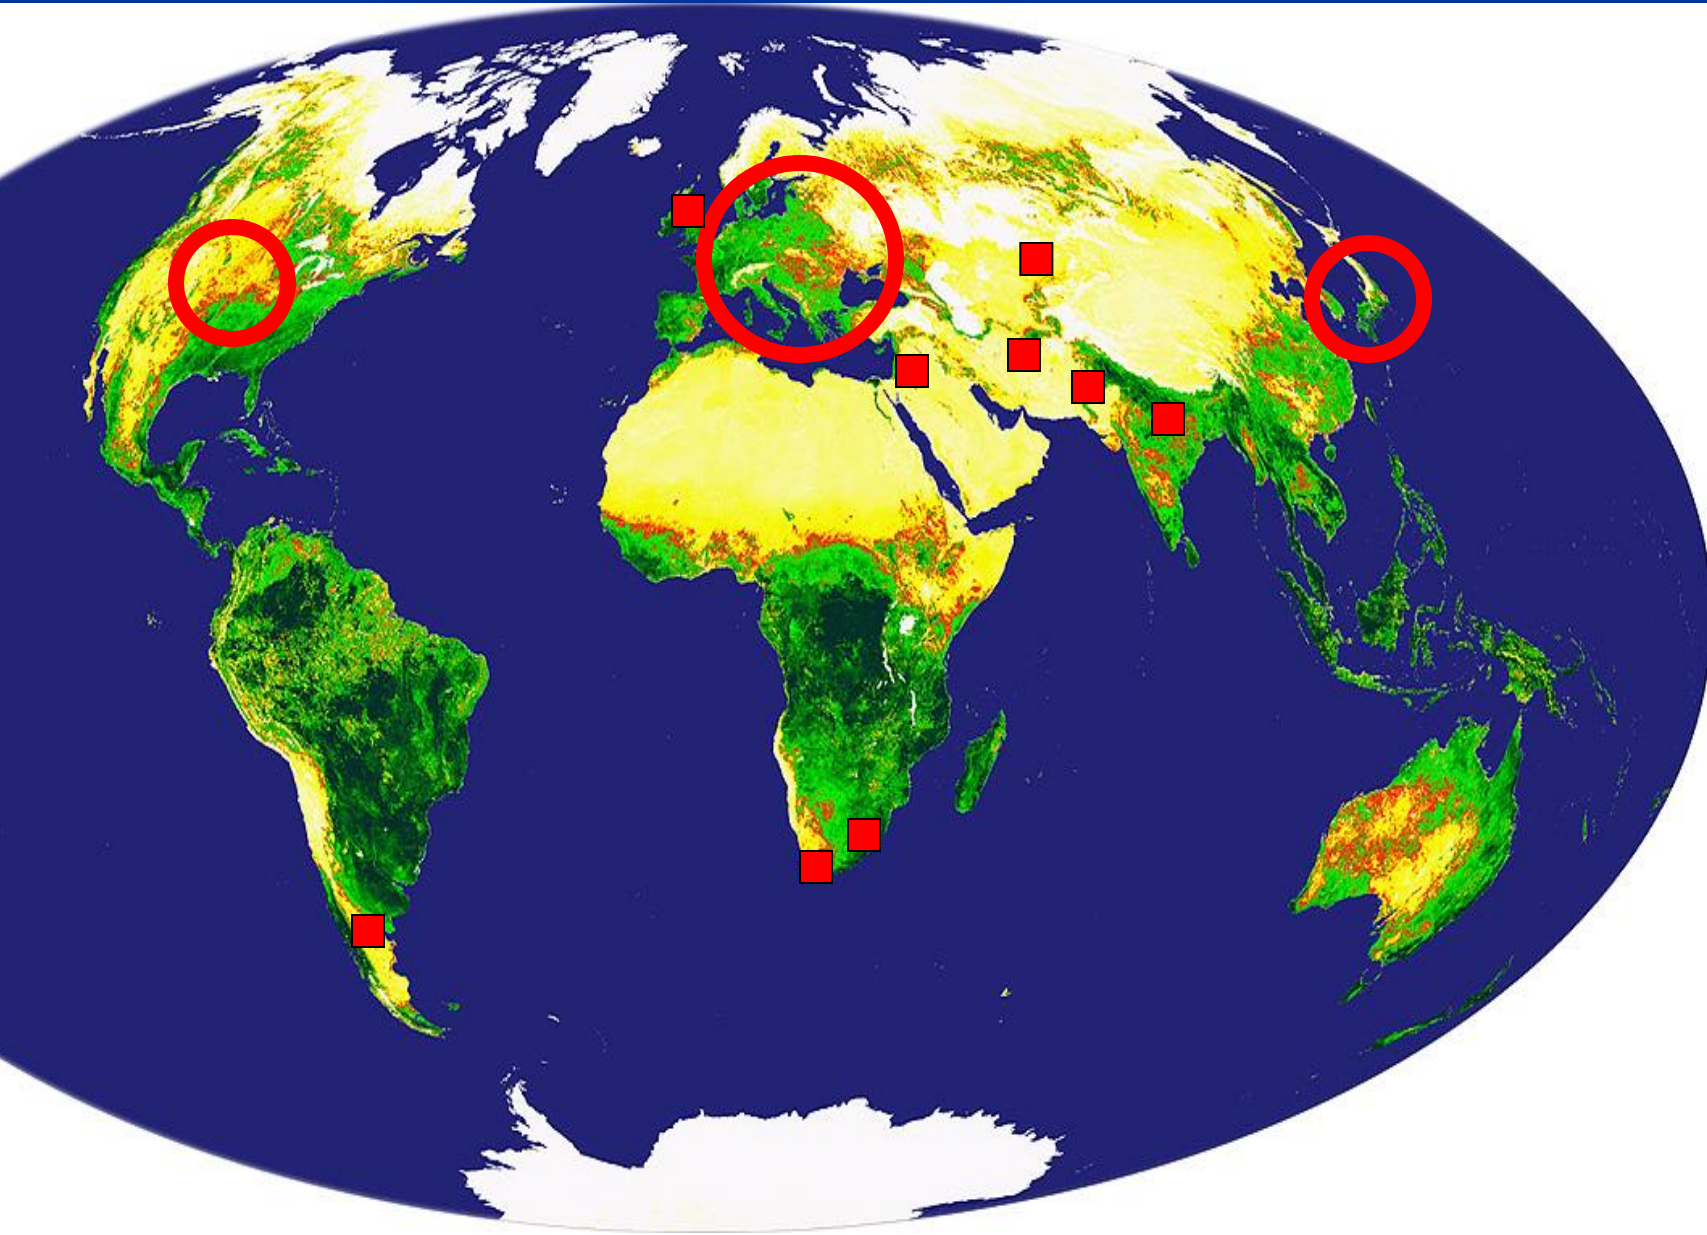

FIS: Focus Skiing

- The stronger the economy, the more can be invested. Larger investments make it easier to promote skiing in the larger population and increase the competitive potential of local skiers.
- Skiing is a sport staged in nature: it requires mountains and snow. (exceptions made for artificial ski slopes in Ireland, Brazil etc.)

FIS: Focus Skiing

Universality of Winter Sports

e.g.

Alps

India

Lesotho

Area

Market

FIS Aid & Promotion Program

Program 2005

- Seminars and conferences for the FIS „Help to Self-Help Project“ an „Leaders seminars“
- FIS Youth Ski Conference (participants from 25 nations), Leaders Seminars in Ukraine, Romania, Belarus
- 1600 free training days offered by candidates of world championships
- education and training for promising athletes
- education and training for coaches, judges etc.
- financial support for purchase of equipment and developement of infrastructure
- collaboration with the Olympic Solidarity Program
- assistance in planning questions (consulting by ski-expert)

Thank you for your attention.

FIS: Focus Skiing

FIS: Focus Skiing

Universality of Winter Sports

Faqra Lebanon

Tiffindell South Africa

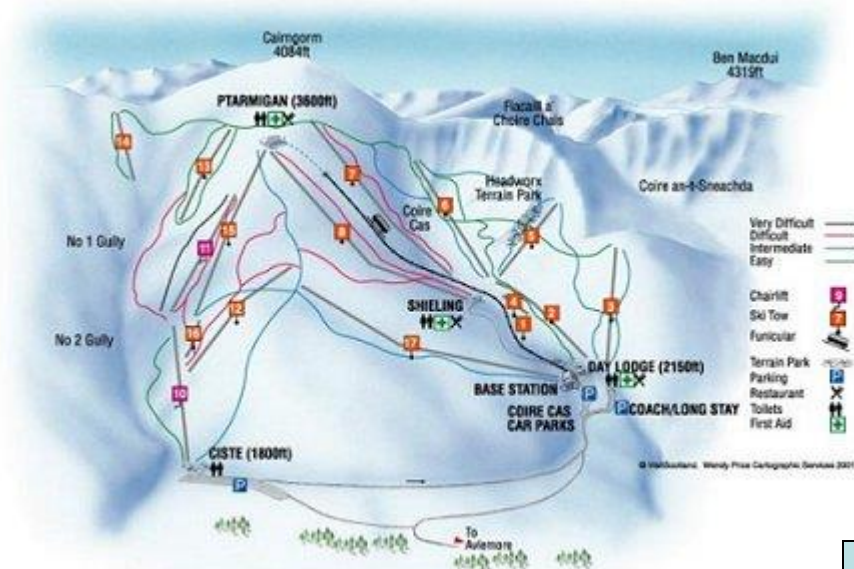

Chimbulak Kazakhstan

Cairn Gorm Scotland

Malam Jabba Pakistan

Caviahue Patagonia Argentina

Oxbow Lesotho

Dizin Iran

Auli India

