I. Introduction

1. The purpose of this report is to present an analysis of the current situation and the initiatives carried out by the Affiliate Members Programme since the date of the last report, which was presented to the 20th session of the UNWTO General Assembly in Victoria Falls, Zambia/Zimbabwe, up to the date of the present report (10 July 2015).

2. The various initiatives in the action plan are being carried out with active engagement of a growing number of Affiliate Members in the different initiatives under way, utilizing various tools such as prototypes, reports, joint projects with other programmes, technical seminars and specialized events. These different initiatives contribute to the practical application of public-private collaboration by way of encouraging interaction and networking as well as the exchange of knowledge and innovative initiatives.

II. Affiliate Members Programme: enhancing public-private partnerships

A. Implementation of the Action Plan of the Affiliate Members Programme

3. Since the last General Assembly, a series of actions based on the work areas detailed in the Action Plan approved by the Board of the Affiliate Members have been carried out. These actions are the following:

1. Events

(a) The 2nd Global Summit on City Tourism: held in Moscow, Russian Federation, was held in collaboration with the City’s Committee on Tourism on 20 September 2013. This Summit served as a platform for the presentation of the Madrid Precious Time prototype project and a forum for the exchange of success stories of different cities in the field of public-private partnership and on the role that tourism has to play in the development of cities and its relationship to the infrastructure, local visitors and culture.

(b) 1st Conference on Innovative Approaches to Overcome Seasonality: Held in Punta del Este on 2 May 2014, the conference provided a forum for the exchange of experiences of different destinations in the area of collaborative models, micro-segmentation strategies and new product development.
UNWTO Seminar on Public-Private Partnerships: Tangible and intangible heritage and innovative tourism products: Held on the occasion of the 98th session of the Executive Council, it provided a perspective on the role of tangible and intangible world heritage in putting together innovative tourism products.

UNWTO Seminar on Public-Private Partnerships: Developing specialized tourism products: held in the framework of the 57th meeting of the UNWTO Commission for the Americas in Cartagena de Indias, this seminar was attended by Affiliate Members of the region and served to examine how the sector can foster innovation and incorporate sustainability throughout its value chain.

12th UNWTO-Cotelco International Seminar, with the support of FEDEC (Colombian Federation of Ecoparks, Ecotourism and Adventure Tourism) and the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Tourism of Colombia, the 12th UNWTO International Seminar was held on 27 June 2014, in Bogotá, with this latest edition focusing on the concept of “Tourism and Peace”.

Presentation of the Punta del Este 365 Prototype: Held during World Travel Market in London, UK, on 5 November, 2014, the event highlighted progress on the “365” prototype, an initiative that has been carried out with the participation of the Affiliate Members to generate innovative products and services to mitigate this phenomenon in Punta del Este and to be applied elsewhere.

1st UNWTO Conference on Shopping Tourism, 29 January 2015: organized together with FITUR Shopping and Affiliate Member Value Retail and held during the framework of Fitur, it highlighted the importance of shopping as one of the major categories of tourists’ expenditure, representing a significant source of income for destinations.

The 1st UNWTO World Forum on Food Tourism held in San Sebastian, Spain, from 27 to 28 April 2015, and jointly organized by UNWTO and the Basque Culinary Center, provided a valuable platform to exchange experiences, enhancing the understanding of food tourism and how to successfully manage this growing tourism segment worldwide.

3rd UNWTO Conference on Overcoming Seasonality: held in Torremolinos, Spain, on 3-4 June 2015, it provided a platform for experts and participants to collaborate on the analysis of an integrated approach to seasonality, where best practices and new developments were shared by stakeholders from the perspective of the public-private sectors.

2. Publications

The Affiliate Members Programme has published the following Regional Report and four Global Reports of the AM Report series:

AM Regional Report Volume three: Working together in Europe – A shared Leadership: Presented at the Regional Commission for Europe on 4 April 2014 in Baku, Azerbaijan, the Report describes the current situation for tourism in UNWTO’s European Member States and examines how they are adapting and planning for emerging trends. It discusses varying performance and opinion across different areas of Europe, based largely on a survey conducted among Member States and Affiliate Members. 8 Affiliate Members contributed to the Report in the form of case studies.
(b) AM Reports: Volume seven - Global Report on the Meetings Industry: Presented at UNWTO Headquarters on 20 March 2014, this Report explores the scope, impact, and opportunities for economic growth and development of the meetings industry. Highlighting the importance of public-private collaboration and the relevance of implementing processes of continuous innovation, it includes experiences and success stories by Affiliate Members from around the world. 9 Affiliate Members contributed to the Report in the form of case studies.

(c) AM Reports: Volume eight - Global Report on Shopping Tourism: The report on shopping tourism was presented on 21 May at the UNWTO Headquarters. It highlights the key role cities play in the development of Shopping Tourism, while presenting updated statistical information on the relevant trends. 9 Affiliate Members contributed to the Report in the form of case studies.

(d) AM Reports Volume nine - Global Report on Adventure Tourism: Presented at the ATTA Global Summit in Killarney, Ireland, on 7 October, the UNWTO Global Report on Adventure Tourism, published jointly with the Adventure Travel Trade Association (ATTA), is the first of its kind by UNWTO on the topic of adventure tourism. The report provides insight into the close relationship between adventure tourism and responsible tourism. 7 Affiliate Members contributed to the Report in the form of case studies.

(e) AM Reports Volume ten - Global Report on City Tourism for Global Benchmarking: Presented at the 3rd Global Summit on City Tourism on 10 December 2014, this Report is a practical application that originates from the “CITIES” project and the Istanbul Declaration. Based on the conclusions from this first City Tourism Summit, the UNWTO Affiliate Members Programme revised its strategic objectives to implement a specific plan to contribute to urban tourism’s progressive analysis. 18 Affiliate Members contributed to the Report with case studies.

5. The following additional reports are underway:

(f) UNWTO Regional Report Volume four - Tourism Products: Building Development in Africa, to be presented during the Regional Commission for Africa to be held within the framework of the 21st session of the General Assembly

(g) UNWTO Global Report on Cultural Routes and Itineraries

(h) UNWTO Global Report on Emerging Tourism Economies: Public-Private Partnerships

(i) UNWTO Global Report on Transformative Tourism for Our Sustainable Future

(j) UNWTO Global Report on Power of Youth Travel

(k) UNWTO Global Report on Sharing Economy – Lodging Industry

3. Prototypes

6. UNWTO has developed a Prototype Methodology in order to establish a formal framework where the public and private sectors work together to share knowledge and implement tourism projects that improve competitiveness in an ethical and sustainable environment. This methodology has been applied to the two prototypes developed this past year, 365 and Precious Time.

7. The Affiliate Members Programme is currently undergoing the initial steps to develop two new prototypes, Wine Tourism and Multimodality.
B. Strengthening the collaboration with the Affiliate Members:

8. Signing of memoranda of understanding with individual members: Since the last session of the UNWTO Executive Council, 40 memoranda of understanding have been signed with various Affiliate Members of UNWTO. The memoranda are aimed at enhancing collaboration between UNWTO and the respective Affiliate Member (see Annex II for a brief description of each MoU).

9. Consolidating the Knowledge Network within the Affiliate Members Programme: In 2012, with a view to strengthening its value within the Programme of Work of UNWTO, the UNWTO Management resolved that the Knowledge Network should be structured within the Affiliate Members Programme. The integration process was fully completed by the 98th session of the Executive Council.

10. The international internship initiative of the Affiliate Members Programme has progressed as follows: The Affiliate Members Programme has incorporated 3 new interns from the following Affiliate Member Programme entities: University of Queensland, University of Bologna and Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts.

11. In order to provide increasing value to the Members, by means of grouping them together by areas of interest and designing specific activities within the Action Plan, the Affiliate Members Programme has created the Gastronomy Network and the Shopping Tourism Working Group.

III. Activities of the Knowledge Network

12. The UNWTO Knowledge Network Symposium, (November 2013, Hong Kong SAR, China) organized in collaboration with School of Hotel and Tourism Management of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, enabled the sharing of best practices in innovative tourism research, education and training to enhance tourism practices in both public and private sectors.

13. The 2nd UNWTO Knowledge Network Global Forum: Bridging Theory and Practice (May 2014, Mexico City, Mexico) taking place at the Universidad de Anahuac, it focused on innovation as playing a central role in advancing competitive and sustainable tourism development worldwide.

14. Knowledge Network meetings: The following meetings were held to exchange the views and ideas of the Knowledge Network community with the objective of closing the gap between regional research demand and supply: Mexico (May 2014, Mexico City, Mexico) and Colombia (October 2014, Bogotá, Colombia).

15. Knowledge Network (KN) Issue Paper Series: developed to strengthen the research component through the Knowledge Network and provide solution-based research studies with practical applications. The first KN Issue Paper on “Growth of Chinese Tourists to Hong Kong 2002 to 2014 – Implications and Way Forward” provides key recommendations on how to consolidate this important market and foster responsible tourism in Hong Kong, China, as well as in other destinations dealing with similar issues. The second KN Issue Paper on “Tourism experiences in emerging destinations: the case study of Bilbao” is currently being developed.

(a) Fostering Talent through Partnership - Knowledge Network Talent Development Platform: designed to promote young talent in tourism by connecting UNWTO Members of the public and private sectors with outstanding students and young professionals from the UNWTO Affiliate Members.
(b) 11th and 12th UNWTO Awards for Excellence and Innovation in Tourism and Knowledge Network Symposia: Held within the framework of Fitur in 2014 and 2015, the UNWTO Awards have recognized the pioneers and prominent leaders in the tourism sector by highlighting their innovative achievements as an inspiration for competitive and sustainable tourism development worldwide. Awardees, laureates and other prominent experts were given the opportunity to present their projects and initiatives as well as participate in panel discussions during the symposia. For a full list and description of those awarded see here: 2014, 2015

Annex III. Amendments to the Rules of Procedure of the Committee of the Affiliate Members

(a) To correct a pre-existing error in which regional Vice-Chairmen are separated into 5 regions and not the 6 UNWTO regions; the Board will now incorporate South Asia. Also, if there is an insufficient number of candidates for position of Vice-Chairman for a specific region, the position will remain vacant.

(b) To establish English as the working language of the Board Meetings as it is unaffordable to have translators for all official UNWTO working languages and the organization cannot give preferential treatment to one over another.

(c) To simplify the electoral process and the counting of ballots as previously requested by a large number of Affiliate Members and to allow for the new Board to be elected and announced sufficiently prior to the General Assembly in order to convene the new Board at its first meeting and proceed to elect the Chairman during the aforementioned General Assembly.

(d) To clarify the role of the Vice-Chairmen.
