GENERAL INFORMATION NOTE

9th UNWTO ASIA/PACIFIC EXECUTIVE TRAINING PROGRAMME ON TOURISM POLICY AND STRATEGY

Community Based Development and Tourism Recovery

28 April – 1 May 2015 in Bohol, Philippines
1. VENUE

The 9th UNWTO Asia Pacific Executive Training Programme on Tourism Policy and Strategy will be held at the South Palms Resort Panglao Island in Bohol, Philippines on the 28 April – 1 May 2015. This year’s programme is entitled Community Based Development and Tourism Recovery. It is co-organised by the UNWTO and the Department of Tourism, Philippines.

The South Palms Resort Panglao Island is a gorgeous and luxury beachfront resort just a step away from white sand and blue waters that offers tropical-inspired experience. The resort is approximately 30 minutes from the airport, making it an ideal jump-off point for Bohol’s natural attractions such as the Tarsier Botanika Par, Hinagdanan Cave and popular diving sites.

2. HOST PROVINCE

Located at the heart of Central Visayas, the Island province of Bohol is the 10th largest island in the Philippines. With a total land area of 4,117.3 square kilometres, it is composed of an oval-shaped mainland surrounded by 72 smaller islands, developed from the magmatic tectonic mechanism which resulted from the under thrusting of the southwest Philippine plate, east of Samar and Surigao. Bohol is well known for its enigmatic charm from the most famous tourist attraction, Chocolate Hills, and the home of one of the rare faunas found in the Philippines, Tarsier, to 16th century watchtowers and Jesuit Baroque mission churches. It is also surrounded by gentle coves and white sand beaches with the very best and most popular diving spots in Visayas.

3. APPLICATION AND REGISTRATION

Participants are requested to complete the attached application form and to return it to the UNWTO Secretariat by 27 March 2015. Once on site, the badge and bag will be distributed to the participants at the registration desk on Tuesday, 28 April from 08:30 to 09:00 hrs.

4. ACCOMMODATION

The South Palms Resort Panglao is the venue of the training programme and the accommodation of the participants. The UNWTO will cover the single room cost for one participant from each member country.
