What does tourism means?
Tourism: what does it mean?

The meaning and the perception of tourism changes, depending on:

- the cultural heritage
- the experience there is with tourism.

Creating a new tourism destination is not about copying successful tourism models, it is more about creating the unique experience that only your territory can offer.
Understanding Tourism Implementation

- Many times it has been associated to big investment.
- We should not forget the potential of our culture, our natural resources, our history, our people....
- Understanding: why is our region interesting to foreigners?
- To identify our uniqueness is crucial.
We know our strength

USP

• This should be the foundation stone for the tourism development-implementation.

Masterplan Development

FLYING EAGLE - KENDERLI - CITY OF THE FUTURE
Tourism Masterplan

• Should be the creation of a unique and innovative environmental friendly concept
• Is the road to a successful development
• It tells us the infrastructure needs
• It is the guide book for the governmental and the private sector
Create a tourism model that:

- Respects and en-powers our culture
- Protects our Natural resources
- Enhances our city’s, our monuments...

A concept that is close to the people and is integrated in the local economy
Who-what makes the tourism experience:

- The locals: The waiters, the receptionist, the taxi driver, the pool boy........

  Our people

- Our History, the villages, the scenery, the food, handicraft, ..........

The Silk Road
New tecnologies, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram…

The use of new communication technology is a priority from the beginning of the development:

It allows us to transmit: Emotions, Personalized experiences…. I am not talking about selling our destination, It is more about sharing, letting the tourist know who we are, how you look like…..

Big data, and new tecnology make this possible,

With a interactive process, we are capable to listen to the tourist recomendations

The best way to travel is visiting friends
