DENSIFYING ALPIN HERITAGE

The case of Andermatt Swiss Alps and Montagne Alternative

Fiona PIA
EPFL (Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Lausanne)
Partner, dl-a, designlab-architecture, Geneva
Heritage and natural hazards

Fausto Pluchinotta
Commeire et Andermatt on the same scale
Program and topography
Before / after transformation
The bed facing the landscape
Rooms floor
Living room
Stone house
Windows in the stone facade
Thickness of the stone
Military heritage
© Mediathek (confédération Suisse) & Fabrizio
The podium (Denniston 2007)
Infrastructure and car mobility

© EPFL, Fiona Pia
Infrastructure and pedestrian
© EPFL, Fiona Pia
260'000 m²
0.87 density
2.4 infrastructure density existing density, new density

© ASA, Andermatt Swiss Alps & Mediathek
34% hôtels
33% condotels
33% non-rented housing
67% «warm» beds
alpine garden: link between natural ground and podium density and public space density and «climate» a whole with different elements