UNWTO ETHICS AWARD 2019

Guidelines

Madrid, 27 August 2018

Introduction

1. The UNWTO is the United Nations agency responsible for the promotion of responsible, sustainable and accessible tourism for all.

2. The UNWTO, as the leading international organization in the field of tourism, advocates tourism that contributes to economic growth, inclusive development and environmental sustainability, and offers leadership and support to the sector to expand its knowledge and tourism policies throughout the world.

3. The “UNWTO Ethics Award” is a category that has been incorporated into the UNWTO Awards in 2016 and is conferred by the World Committee on Tourism Ethics to tourism companies and trade associations that have signed the Private Sector Commitment to the Global Code of Ethics and have reported on its implementation.

4. As a subsidiary organ of the UNWTO General Assembly, the World Committee on Tourism Ethics is the independent body responsible for overseeing the implementation of the UNWTO Global Code of Ethics for Tourism (GCET), a set of principles designed to guide sustainable tourism development.
5. The Private Sector Commitment to the Global Code of Ethics for Tourism summarizes the provisions of the UNWTO Code of Ethics that are most clearly related to the private sector and Corporate Social Responsibility:
   a. Article 2: Promote gender equality, human rights and combat the exploitation of human beings, particularly children;
   b. Article 3: Safeguard the natural environment, protect natural heritage, preserve resources and avoid waste production;
   c. Article 5: Integrate and consult locals in the destination’s economic and social fabric development and evaluate the environmental impact of development projects;
   d. Article 6: Provide tourists with objective and honest information and contribute to their cultural and spiritual fulfillment; and
   e. Article 9: Guarantee fundamental rights of salaried and self-employed workers. And contribute to sustainable development of tourism and equitable distribution of benefits of its growth.
