Raj Gyawali
Founder, Social Tours, Nepal

So far, Raj Gyawali has spoken the language of responsible tourism in 6 languages and 7 countries, for over 20 years. With a special focus on 'soft adventures', he consults with several government and global bodies, and works with over 200 stakeholders on the ground in Nepal. Based in Kathmandu, Raj runs Social Tours, Karma Coffee and the conscious living space, HUB. He also manages Ethical Travel Portal, his company in Norway.

Paras Loomba
Founder, Global Himalayan Expedition, India

Paras Loomba and GHE have combined tourism and tech to electrify nearly 100 remote villages in Ladakh using clean energy, and set up 52 homestay so far. An electrical engineer by training, he's a member of WTTC's Tomorrow for Tourism Awards jury.