DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) is the United Nations agency responsible for the promotion of responsible, sustainable and universally accessible tourism.

UNWTO is currently looking for a Programme Officer for its Innovation, Education and Investments Department in its future Regional Office in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The Department aims to drive the digitalization of tourism and to create an Innovation and Entrepreneurship Ecosystem that will maximize the potential of the sector in terms of economic growth, job creation and sustainable development.

Under the overall supervision of the Director, Innovation, Education and Investments and the day-to-day guidance of the Coordinator, Innovation, Education and Investments, the incumbent performs the following duties:

1. Supports the development of the UNWTO General Programme of Work through the preparation, analysis and evaluation of technical documents with specific attention to the implementation of UNWTO’s Innovation, Education and Investments Strategy and its related activities;

2. Assists in designated innovation projects and programmes (both within the service and at organizational level), including research, design, planning, coordination, implementation and monitoring functions as and when requested/appropriate;

3. Supports the organization of startup competitions and challenges, capacity-building initiatives, workshops, courses and seminars both administratively and substantively, including in the development of relevant online resources in innovation and digital transformation;

4. Partners with diverse internal and external partners, including consultants, strategic stakeholders and subject matter experts, academia, civil society and private sector organizations for the provision of technical support and assistance;

5. Prepares and participates in events/missions and institutional meetings organized by the department;

6. Supports the identification of needs of the Member States related to Innovation and drafts relevant proposals that may be appropriate based on the situation of the Member State.
and shares these with the relevant regional departments in the Organization, for comments and coordination for the necessary support;

7. Assists the supervisor in promoting innovation globally; assists with the preparation and follow up implementation of Memorandums of Understanding, agreements between the department and other public and private stakeholders;

8. Keeps abreast of new innovations, approaches and technologies, particularly those that could be potentially applied to the tourism sector;

9. Documents and shares insights on innovation at UNWTO as a way of strengthening the department’s work and building internal credibility for innovation as a respected source of good ideas and tested approaches;

10. Conducts data collection and analysis in subject matter expertise, design data collection tools, including indicators;

11. Prepares drafts and/or edits various written outputs based on research; prepares dissemination material for various audiences such as briefing notes, speeches and brochures;

12. Performs other duties as required.

Other conditions

The initial grade and step on appointment will be determined by the Secretary-General on the basis of qualifications and in the light of previous similar appointments and could be at a grade different from that shown above. Appointments are normally at step 1 of the grade. The Secretary-General reserves the right to appoint a candidate at a lower level than the advertised level of the post.

If, following consideration of applications, the Secretary-General proceeds to fill this vacancy, a fixed-term appointment for a period of two years – subject to a four-month probationary period – will be offered. There is, however, no guarantee either that the initial contract will be renewed or that a career appointment within UNWTO will subsequently be offered.

Application Procedure

Interested applicants are requested to complete the Online UNWTO Personal History Form. Please note that UNWTO will only accept applications received through our web-based system. Applications sent by other means (e.g. post, email, etc.) or received after the deadline indicated above, will not be taken into consideration.

▪ Candidates who do not receive any feedback within three months of the deadline should consider their application as unsuccessful;
▪ In filling vacancies, due regard will be paid towards maintaining a staff selected on a wide and equitable geographical basis. Candidates of all nationalities are welcome to apply; under similar circumstances, preference will be given to nationals of UNWTO Member States. Women candidates and nationals from non-represented Member States in the UNWTO Secretariat are encouraged to apply;
▪ Short-listed candidates may be asked to take a competitive exam as part of the final phase of the selection process. These candidates will be contacted directly for this purpose.
