Original: English

Executive summary
The Secretary-General has received official communications submitting the candidatures of Egypt, Portugal and Uzbekistan to host the twenty-fifth session of the General Assembly of the World Tourism Organization in 2023.

The General Assembly is requested to decide on the venue of its twenty-fifth session.

Action by the General Assembly

DRAFT RESOLUTION¹

The General Assembly,

Having regard to Article 10 of the Statutes and Article 1 of its Rules of Procedure,

Having taken cognizance of the three candidatures submitted, respectively, by the Governments of Egypt, Portugal and Uzbekistan,

1. Thanks these Governments warmly for their respective invitations; and

Having carried out a vote by secret ballot,

2. Decides that its twenty-fifth session will be held in …. in 2023.

Having examined the report of the Secretariat on the practice for the conclusion of a host country agreement,

3. Recalls that acceptance by the State of the standard conditions laid out in the model agreement is a preliminary requirement for the submission of a valid candidacy to host a General Assembly session,

4. Requests States to undertake in writing that they observe the legal framework for the holding of UNWTO meetings away from headquarters and provide the conditions established in the model agreement for the hosting of the General Assembly in accordance with resolution 631(XX).

¹ This is a draft resolution. For the final resolution adopted by the Assembly, please refer to the Resolutions document issued at the end of the session.
I. Procedure for fixing the place and dates of General Assembly sessions

1. The Articles of the Organization’s Statutes and the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly concerning the place and dates of General Assembly sessions are reproduced below for information:

   (a) Article 8(2) of the Statutes:

   “Meetings of the Assembly and the Council shall be held at the Headquarters of the Organization unless the respective organs decide otherwise.”

   (b) Article 10 of the Statutes:

   “The Assembly shall meet in ordinary session every two years and, as well, in extraordinary session when circumstances require. Extraordinary sessions may be convened at the request of the Council or of a majority of Full Members of the Organization.”

   (c) Rule 1 of the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly:

   “1. The Secretary-General shall convene the Assembly in ordinary session every two years at the Organization’s Headquarters.

   2. The Assembly may meet at another place if it so decides, provided the host country reimburses the extra expenses involved in holding the session.

   3. The date of the session shall be fixed by the Assembly or by the Council, if so empowered and notified to the Members of the Organization not less than seven months before it is due to be held.”

2. Despite the wording of Article 8(2) of the Statutes, in the practice the Assembly does not meet at the headquarters of the Organization. Through resolution 631(XX), the Assembly recognized that the practice of geographical rotation of its sessions has greatly contributed to promote the role of tourism and of the Organization around the world, and adopted the guidelines for the selection of venues of sessions of the General Assembly (hereinafter “the Guidelines”) as described in document A/20/5(II)(i).

II. Fixing the venue of the 25th session of the General Assembly

3. Pursuant to the Guidelines, in order for a candidature to be eligible the State concerned must fulfil the following requirements before the General Assembly adopts the resolution concerning the place of its next session:

   (a) Receive the sponsorship of at least 10% of the Member States, and

   (b) Undertake in writing to observe the standard conditions laid out in the model agreement.

4. The standard requirements and conditions laid out in the model agreement shall be the subject of an agreement between the government of the host State and the Organization.

5. The model agreement is based on the legal framework governing the holding of UNWTO meetings away from Headquarters, which is primarily determined by Article 32 of the Statutes, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies and its Annex XVIII, as well as relevant resolutions by the General Assembly, and is aligned with the policy of the United Nations in this regard.

6. Failure to apply any of the standards and principles included in the template agreement may expose delegates of Member States and other participants to, inter alia, difficulties issuing visas or refusal to enter into the host country, documentation and media materials destined for the meeting being refused free entry or being searched, customs duties being requested, and non-respect by national authorities of official immunity from legal process (e.g. arrest and detention, commencement of lawsuits). It may also expose the Organization to legal and financial liability.

7. Any State willing to host the General Assembly should, before submitting its candidature, become familiar with the standard requirements set out in the model agreement.

8. Unfortunately, the Secretariat often encounters some reluctance to apply the conditions required by the General Assembly for the host of its sessions as well as pressure to deviate from the policy established by it and from the consistent policy of the United Nations in this regard. As a result, lengthy negotiations are undertaken, often with the support of the Secretariat of the United Nations, to ensure that the General Assembly instructions are respected by countries having been elected to host the General Assembly of the Organization.

9. In order to avoid these situations, which may even jeopardize the proper organization of the session of the Assembly, the Secretariat has developed a model letter for States concerned to incorporate into their candidatures whereby they undertake to observe the legal framework for the holding of UNWTO meetings away from Headquarters and to provide the provisions established in the model agreement for the hosting of the General Assembly pursuant to the Guidelines.

10. Should the host country not be in a position to provide the necessary conditions for the hosting of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General, in line with his delegated authority pursuant to paragraph (i) of the Guidelines, will adopt any measure as necessary to ensure the proper holding of the session.

Annex I: Portugal’s candidature letter to host the 25th session of UNWTO General Assembly

(sent by mail)  Mr. Zurab Pololikashvili
Secretary-General
UN World Tourism Organization

Dear Secretary General,

One of the lessons that result from the pandemic and its impacts on the tourism sector is the need for destinations to diversify the supply of tourism products and demand from new source markets. It is true that this was already seen before the pandemic, but now it has become crucial for the reactivation of travel and tourism.

In Portugal we have the 2027 Strategy for the development of tourism and in this context we dedicate great importance to the development and structuring of tourism products, acting upon the main trends of international demand.

We also developed the Tourism + Sustainable Strategy 2020-2023, which we want to be a boost to make Portugal one of the most sustainable destinations in the world, so that by 2050 we can contribute to a fully decarbonized sector that meets all the UN SDGs.

Considering this important agenda and its 2023 target, on behalf of the Portuguese Government I hereby express our desire to host the 25th UNWTO General Assembly in 2023 and thus help the Organization to send a clear and absolute message about the importance of sustainable, economic, environmental and social development in the tourism sector.

Portugal has never hosted a UNWTO General Assembly and the last time the meeting took place in Western Europe was in 1989 in France, i.e. about 33 years ago. Also aiming the amend of this scenery we would be more than honoured to welcome UNWTO GA in 2023.

With my best regards and warmest consideration

Rita Marques
Secretary of State for Tourism
Dear Zurab Pololikashvili,

On behalf of the State Committee of the Republic of Uzbekistan for Tourism Development, let me express my deepest appreciation to UNWTO for the personally invitation to participate in the Executive Council membership 112th session in Tbilisi, Georgia.

I congratulate UNWTO on the successful organization of the event after a long break.

Uzbekistan always tries to take an active participation in every event of the organization. We would have wished to be part of the event and discuss cooperation issues between Uzbekistan and UNWTO, but due to the pandemic situation and urgent coordination of the government support for tourism sector the delegation from Uzbekistan will not be able to join the session.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has impacted countries in varying degrees. Member states started easing travel restrictions, they will overcome the current global challenge with the support of coordinated recommendations adopted by the UNWTO.

As you know, Uzbekistan is now undergoing large-scale transformations in all sectors, as well as in tourism sphere and as their logical continuation, further development of cooperation between Uzbekistan and Member States of the CEU. In order to enhance the role of Uzbekistan in the development of international tourism, we are pleased to announce Uzbekistan’s candidacy for Executive council membership for 2021-2025, as well as our willingness to join the official bidding to host the 25th Session of the General assembly in 2023 in Samarkand, Uzbekistan.

Please accept, dear Secretary-General, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Kind regards,

Aziz Abdukakimov
Deputy Prime Minister, Chairman of The State Committee for Tourism Development
Annex III: Egypt’s candidature letter to host the 25th session of the UNWTO General Assembly

Cairo July 7, 2021

H.E. Mr. Zurab Pololikashvili
Secretary General
World Tourism Organization (UNWTO)

Your Excellency,
Allow me first and foremost to express my sincere respect to your good-self.
I am writing to you in reference to the upcoming 25th Session of the UNWTO General Assembly to be held in 2023, where I would like to bring to your kind attention the desire of Egypt to host the session.
In this regard, I would highly appreciate taking the necessary measures to notify the UNWTO Member States about the Egyptian candidature. I seize the opportunity to assure you and the Member States that the utmost efforts would be exerted to organize a successful event and to offer our guests an unforgettable experience.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours Sincerely,
Dr. Khaled El-Enany

Minister of Tourism and Antiquities
