NOTE VERBALE

The Secretariat of the World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) presents its compliments to the Members of the UNWTO Commission for Africa, the Affiliate Members of the region as well as other recipients and has the honor to inform them that in accordance with recommendation CAF/CR/12(LXIV) the Government of United Republic of Tanzania invites them to participate in the Sixty-Fifth Meeting of the UNWTO Regional Commission for Africa. The Commission meeting will be followed by a forum under the theme Rebuilding Africa’s Tourism Resilience for Inclusive Socio-Economic Development, to be held in Arusha, United Republic of Tanzania, from 5th – 7th October 2022.

In the framework of the Rebuilding Africa’s Tourism Resilience for Inclusive Socio-Economic Development forum to take place on 6th October 2022, the recipients of this communication are kindly encouraged to extend an invitation to key private sector partners, national investment institutions, international funding institutions, and other relevant stakeholders.

The provisional agenda of the 65th CAF meeting, the programme of the forum, the general information note, online registration link as well as other working documents of the commission meeting will be sent in due course and will be available on the UNWTO website.

It would be appreciated, if the recipients of this note could take the necessary measures to confirm their attendance. Furthermore, we would like to inform you that the commission meeting is limited to CAF Ministers, their designated representatives, Affiliate Members of the region and key partner institutions that have been invited.

The Secretariat of the World Tourism Organization avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Members of the UNWTO Commission for Africa, the affiliate members of the region and other recipients, the assurances of its highest consideration.
